

We are shaping the future of work. Are you in?

New Work is our passion – this is how we constantly think, plan and implement the world of work in a new way. If you are equally fascinated by this cutting-edge and forward-looking topic, and if you would like to support projects on an international level in their implementation, then you have come to the right place. To strengthen our 35-strong team, we are looking for a full-time/part-time (80%) committed employee for our Munich location with immediate effect

Junior Workplace Consultant / focus on planning (w/m/d)

What excites you:

- The topic of New Work and the vision to make work a positive and motivating experience.
- The planning of user-oriented workplace environments with regard to room conception, design and furnishing
- The development of design concepts that reflect the corporate identity in the space and have a positive effect on people
- The strategic development of overarching workplace concepts, standards and guidelines
- Carrying out and evaluating activity and building analyses
- Advising our clients on the development of New Work concepts with a focus on agile, innovative, sustainable and health-promoting working environments
- Conducting workshops to integrate employees and managers into concept development – with the aim of turning concerns and fears into motivation

What you bring to the table:

- A successfully completed degree in the field of architecture, interior design or a comparable qualification
- At least three reference projects in which you have gained experience in the development of innovative concepts
- Very good team and communication skills in fluent German and English
- A careful and focused way of working, solution orientation, willingness to perform and a high degree of personal responsibility
- A self-confident appearance, enjoy presenting and enjoy working with customers, colleagues and partner companies
- Creativity and inventiveness as well as a passion for architecture, design, innovation and modern working environments
- Confidence in the use of common MS Office applications as well as knowledge of ArchiCad and pCon.planner

This is what you can expect from us:

With us, you will work in an international team and in an appreciative working atmosphere based on trust and respect. It goes without saying that we value good team spirit, self-determined work and motivating remuneration. So if you would like to shape the working world of tomorrow with us, Betty is looking forward to receiving your complete application documents: bettina.kayl@workingwell.com
